

Clinical cases L-PRF™

Del Corso & Ehrenfest

Clinical situation following tooth extraction.

Socket preservation and bone augmentation using a mixture of bone grafting material and cut L-PRF™ membranes.

Augmentation site is covered with L-PRF™ membranes.

Open healing and fixation with the gingival margin.

Quick healing 8 days post-operative without signs of complications.

Stable clinical situation 6 months post-operative.